

Does the CHURCH have anything to say to REAL LIFE?

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19
9 AM – 3 PM

Lake Nokomis Presbyterian Church
1620 East 46th Street, Minneapolis

*Has church become an irrelevant institution or an insincere ritual, disconnected from people's real lives?
Or can the church REALLY enter into suffering, be a place of belonging, and speak of hope in the midst of reality?*

A day of theological conversation
for church leaders and regular people, from all faith perspectives.

Bring your questions.
We'll have donuts.

Registration Including Lunch:
$20 (Lunch by Pepito's)
Registration is limited.
To register,
call Jan at 612-721-4463
by September 11.

Dr. Andy Root is a theologian and professor of Youth & Family Ministry at Luther Seminary, St. Paul, and the author of Revisiting Relational Youth Ministry, Relationships Unfiltered, and the forthcoming The Promise of Despair: The Way of the Cross as the Way of the Church, which will shape the day's conversation.

Co-hosted by Randolph Heights Presbyterian Church, Edgumbe Presbyterian Church, Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, and Lake Nokomis Presbyterian Church
